“ Our hearts our sad to hear of Matt's passing. He was such a kind young man, always a great smile (except on the wrestling mat with his "mean face") and a big heart. My sons had the pleasure of wrestling and playing football with Matt and, although our paths did not cross as much when he went to Carmel for High School, it was always a pleasure to see him at wrestling tournaments and matches. We hope the beautiful memories you have of Matt and your knowledge that he was a wonderful person help you through this time in your lives. Praying for peace in your hearts. - Chad, Cate, Dakota and Cameron Larson

“ Karen, I am not a regular in your class but hopefully give you comic relief as I try to follow your graceful zumba routines. Just as your friendly and fun class is a reflection of who you are, I am sure your son was just like you. I wish I could offer words that could ease your pain. Only God Almighty can comfort and give your strength each day. I pray you will find Him and cling to Him during this time of unmeasurable grief and sorrow. My deepest condolences to you, dear Karen.
