“ I met Mrs. Palomino over 10 years ago. Through my good friend her daughter Patricia. Mrs. Palomino was always at her granddaughter's Britt and Ally G's beauty pageants, and or talent shows. I also had the privilege to help Patricia with a project for her mother, a slideshow of Mrs. Palomino and her late husband Mr. Palomino. In helping put together the slide show I feel as if though I got to learn a bit more about Mrs. Palomino. I learned she was a strong woman who loved her husband and children very much. Mrs. Palomino will be missed by many including myself, and many more whose heart she touched in more than one way.

“ *Proverbs 31: 10, 25-31 best describes Aunt Ann.
Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.
Strength and honor are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.
She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.
She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.
Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.
Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.
Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised.
Give her the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.*

“ It's been many years since I have seen my aunt Nirrie. My fondness memory was going to my uncle Ray's and Aunt Nirrie's home and seeing how much love and support they had for Patricia. I see that love and support Patricia received carried forward to her own daughters. She will be missed. But the memories will be treasured. Cindy Fresas

So sorry I did not get to see "Nirrie" when she was at Pattie house . She was a wonderful and a great person, and married my uncle Ray. Which I always call him my brother, he lived with us until he married Nirrie. I'm going to miss both of them very much I have a special place in my heart ❤️ for them.

I remember when my Uncle Ray "eloped" and married Nira. Uncle Ray lived with us and he went AWOL for a few days. We were so worried about him until he called and announce he got married. What a shock, I thought he was a confirm bachelor. So glad to welcome Nira to the family. They are now together and never to be parted.

My prayers go out to Patti, Hugh, Alyssa and Brittany. May God give you strength to see you through this last tribute to Nira.

I feel your pain. Never easy losing someone so close to you.

“ I will always remember and love my wonderful Aunt Ann! The mere thought of her always brings a smile to my face! Aunt Ann could always make me laugh. I have such happy memories of our visits. She loved her family so much and was so proud of them. Ann was such a loving and caring person. I believe she was an Angel in our mists. She will be missed but never forgotten. Sending Love and Prayers!

“ So sorry for your loss, loved growing up with her at the top of my block, I'd walk over to see if Patty was home (Patty was the big sister I never had) she was so sweet and always welcomed me in. She was always so proud of her family. Patty, Hugh and their daughters too such great care of her. She will be missed.
