“ Laura, I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. My sympathies to you and your family.

Having known your mother for over 40 years, she was my good friend, and I will really miss her. Now, when I open my front door, it will be strange not to see her crossing the street to come visit. I will think back on all our happy times, then think fondly of her.

I will truly miss my friend.

Rest peacefully, my dear friend, Pat.

“Pat was one of the few people about whom I can say I knew just about my entire life. We’ve known her for over 40 years. She was someone who was always around, literally, for as long as I can remember.

As a kid, I knew her as the woman across the street who never complained when we’d hit tennis balls or softballs or plastic hockey pucks onto her lawn. As an adult, I got to know her much better and I was glad of it. Up until I was about 35, I’d call her Mrs. Jankovsky until finally, exasperated, one day, she said “just call me Pat.”

I’ll miss the many Saturday morning breakfasts and other excursions that Pat took with my Mom and me. She always knew to head out to the end of her driveway at 8:25 am, sharp. She was also a constant at our monthly pizza party get-togethers. I just loved talking with her and will especially miss talking/emailing about current events and books and arguing politics with her, even though she and I totally disagreed on that subject. She was never shy about expressing her opinions, that’s for sure.

I was sad to hear of her passing and will miss her very much. She endured so much, health wise, in her later years. May she rest in peace.

My deepest sympathies to George, Laura, and Pat’s entire family. She will be missed.
