

Payton "Ryan" Miller

October 1, 1995 - October 7, 2018

Payton "Ryan" Miller was born on October 1st, 1995. He had one older brother, Fred (who the family affectionately refers to as Mike) and lived with his mother and father, Kim and Guy Miller in Lake Villa. On October 7th, 2018, Ryan committed suicide after a 12 year battle with mental illness.

Ryan and Mike were adopted by Kim and Guy on February 16th, 2000. Ryan was an affectionate, loving son who prized others' well-being before his own. He was diagnosed with Tourette's and OCD at age 11 and was in and out of hospitals and wards from then until very recent. He often obsessed about the years of his childhood lost to those illnesses. That being said, critters trapped in window wells of his parent's home and spiders caught roosting in the corners of the house were often rescued by Ryan's keen eye and generosity. He loved helping. He loved being relied upon. He lacked love for himself, but made sure his family and friends knew he cared for them. He was the guy that would ring the bell when he left a restaurant, letting the employees know the service was good. He was the kind of guy that got stuck holding the door open for people several yards away.

Despite what demons he faced inside and the growing torment that he could just never fit in, Ryan was charismatic. When he was homeless, wandering around the southern United States, it was his ability to connect with others that eventually guided him home. He was competitive. He hated to lose. He always said, "I'm going to do it perfectly or I'm not going to do it at all". He loved Japan and Japanese culture. He and his brother recently completed a trip to Japan, where he was truly happy. He brought many things back, from fortune cookies to rare figurines. He was surrounded by his passions, his fascinations, and away from the societal obligations that tormented him and his sense of belonging. He often stated sadly that he could just not see himself leading a "normal life"

Ryan's obsession with achieving perfection was both his greatest asset and worst vice. His family wishes for him to be remembered by his unrelenting affection for family, friends, animals, and total strangers. Ryan will be deeply missed.

Visitation will be held on Friday, October 12, 2018 at Ringa Funeral Home, 122 S. Milwaukee Ave., Lake Villa, IL 60046 from 4 to 8 pm. A funeral service will begin at 7:30 pm. Cremation will be private.

“ Ryan,

Keep hearing Earth Wind & Fire “September” on the radio lately, while I am commuting in my vehicle. Even if you are not trying to reach out to me. Every time I hear it, all I think about is you. No matter how I am feeling beforehand, once the song begins, it puts a smile on my face. Brings back great memories. I love you and miss you so very much. Rest peacefully Bud..

“ Ryan,

Happy Birthday 🍷 You would have been 29 today. I can't believe it. You left way too soon. Since the absence of you and your mom, my life has become so very different. I'm still carrying on the best way that I know how. I try not to dwell on the past too much, and let go of the anger, resentment and guilt that I have carried for so long. But it is difficult, going from being surrounded by loved ones, to suddenly being all alone. Nevertheless, I will keep moving forward in my journey through life, regardless of what it has in store for me. I think of you every day..

Love you always bud, 🍷

your mom and I have had a rough day today. You have been weighing on our hearts and minds a great deal. Your absence from our lives has truly left an irreparable void. I have felt you reaching out to me several times this past week, whether it be by songs on the radio or strange coincidences taking place, but you must know that I have been in shambles lately. I am doing my best to move forward in life, because that is my only option. No amount of time appears to make losing you get any easier to cope with. The one thing that mom and I hold on to, is knowing that you are free of any pain and suffering and that you are watching over us, knowing that one day we will all be reunited. “ It is 6 months to the day of your passing and it doesn't seem to be getting any easier. Not one day has gone by that you have not been in my thoughts and prayers. I know that you are at peace and in a better place but that doesn't change the fact that you are dearly missed. Until we meet again my son, watch over us and give us the strength we need to carry on. Love ya bud, dad

“ today is 3 months since my son funeral is surely missed by his mom think of him everyday and trying to go on without him. He had a great heart and wish he was still with us but i do know he isnt suffering and is in a safe place and finally his mind is at peace. Pray for him and our family everyday for hope and strength; Love you with all my heart and a piece of my heart is with you in heaven Ma you will always be my boog and baby

“ I can't think of the words to say. You're physically gone, but I don't want to talk about you that way.

I'm sorry that I didn't notice your signs sooner so that I could reach out and tell you we're in the same boat. You weren't supposed to go yet, you know.

A lot of us are coming to see you soon, and I don't want to spoil it, but Kim's gonna make something amazing. Just you wait and see, Pay-a-ton.
