

Priscilla Vanderwall

May 2, 1938 - June 23, 2026

Priscilla Ann Vanderwall (née Witkowski), known lovingly as Perci, passed away on June 23rd, 2026, with her husband, Richard Vanderwall, by her side, and surrounded by family.

Perci was born on May 2, 1938, in Chicago to Natalie Bieszczat and Henry Anthony Witkowski. She married Richard Vanderwall on August 23rd, 1958, and together they built a home on Petite Lake in Lake Villa, where they lived throughout their marriage and raised their family.

Perci took great joy in raising her four sons and cherished the time she spent with her eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. She also loved her many “grand dogs” and always made sure to have a treat ready whenever they came to visit. Perci dearly loved her parents, Hank and Nat, and spent many treasured moments with them before their passing.

She was happiest spending time with Richard and her family, especially by the lake. Perci also enjoyed volunteering at local elections, eating breakfast at neighborhood diners, taking long walks, watching General Hospital and Murder She wrote, and cheering on her beloved Chicago Cubs, especially during their 2016 World Series victory.

Perci was preceded in death by her parents, Hank and Natalie. She is survived by her brother, Terrence Witkowski. She is also survived by her husband, Richard Vanderwall; her sons, Brett (Lisa Nanney) Vanderwall, Wade (Darla) Vanderwall, Lane Vanderwall, and Cory (Joan) Vanderwall; and her eight grandchildren, Frank (Cassie) Vanderwall, Jenna (Brett) Scheffler, Travis (Krystynia) Vanderwall, Kyle Vanderwall, Abby Vanderwall, Stephanie (Nick) Geidner, Emma (Xavier Lucero-Garcia) Vanderwall, and Sadie (Donovan) Sanchez.
