

Raquel D'Agostino

November 15, 1967 - January 17, 2026

Raquel D'Agostino, 58, of Lake Villa, IL passed away on Saturday, January 17, 2026.

She was born in Chicago on November 15, 1967, the daughter of the late Victor and Antonia Maria Rodriguez (Mendoza). Raquel was a member of Prince of Peace Catholic Church. She loved dancing, swimming, boating, scuba diving (PADI certified), and camping. She loved sunrises and sunsets and loved to walk.

She created significance in simple acts. She enjoyed exploring life to its fullest extent and left no stone unturned.

Raquel brought into this world eight beautiful children. She was not only their mother, but their foundation. She was the rock that kept everyone grounded, steady, and safe.

She was always very lively, nurturing, and funny. She loved being shown what the children created and the children loved to hear about her past and cooking and baking with her.

She had a sense of joy and laughter that was infectious. And was always committed to learning something new. She always made you feel it was ok to be a little crazy.

Through every challenge and every joy, she carried strength with quiet grace. She never asked for recognition. She simply showed up, every day, for the people she loved.

She is survived by her husband Pasquale, her children Grazie A. (Gino Miranda), Pasquale-III, Carmela, Vivian D., Vincent A., Salvatore, Raquel, Elizabeth, and grandchildren Gino, Giabella, Giuseppe Miranda, her sisters Evelyn Guihan, Rosemary Kyre, Margarita Seaquist, Aida Mathews, Jean M. Medina, her brothers Raymond, Efrain, late brothers Victor, Diego, John D. Rodriguez.

To the world she was a mom.

To her family she was the world.

“ Raquel you were my lighthouse.
When life felt uncertain or overwhelming,
you were the steady light that guided me home.
Your love was constant, reassuring, and unshakable.
No matter how rough the waters became, I always knew where to look.
Until we meet again.
Love you always and forever,
Pasquale

“ To the D’Augustino family our sincere sympathy for your loss. Our best time together was our diving trip in the Bahamas. I (Jim) was learning to drive (on right side of road). Saw the whites in both your eyes. And Raqual doing her first open water dive. Memories we’ll never forget. God bless your family. Jim & Jackie Mandock
