“ *Dear Carol,
You and Ray were so nice to us when we all came to Milwaukee (twice!). I was hoping both of you would come to California & we could treat you. I do hope you will come visit us sometime. I'm sure Ray is catching up on old times with my Mom & Dad in heaven. I know they welcomed him with open arms. I am so sorry for your loss, but I pray that all your good memories will bring you comfort.
Love, Diana Sullivan*

“ I met Ray when he came to work for Time Warner Cable around 8 years ago. His job was the same as mine, as a field sales representative..

It didn't take long for me to appreciate what sort of person Ray was. In the two years or so that we worked together, I came to know him as a good natured, unpretentious, and generous friend.

We got together occasionally for lunch after we both retired, and now that he's gone, I wish I had seen him much more often.

In the rather short time that I knew him, I came to realize he was one of the nicest people I ever met.

I know he has gone back to the lord, Who created him.
