“ Our sincere sympathy to all of you! Mom is heartbroken on the loss of her best friend❤️ Your mom was so good to her over the years. They had a very special friendship. I know there are so many pics, but this is what I came across. So sorry we will not be at the service, but we will be in spirit🙏❤️ Lynn Fischer and Kim & Tom

“ My sincere sympathy to Renee’s family. Renee and I first met at the Lindenhurst Curves. We had many conversations over the years. We were also reunited at the Antioch curves as well. Recently our meeting place was the Jewel in Round Lake. Renee’s name came up earlier this week at the Ingelside Curves where several ladies from Lindenhurst and Antioch now attend. We did not realize Renee passed. She was a lovely lady who never had a hair out of place. It was a privilege for me that our paths crossed. See you Renee at Heavens Curves.

“ Sue and Marc, so very sorry to hear about your Mom! I hadn’t seen her at mass recently but just figured she was attending a different service or attending the service at Victory Lakes! She had told me many times it was so much easier for her to do that. Our sincere condolences and prayers for your whole family.
