

Rex Pischke

October 23, 1955 - April 1, 2019

Rex A. Pischke, 63, of Trevor, WI, passed away on Monday, April 1, 2019.

He was born in Waukegan, IL on October 23, 1955, the son of Norb and Betty Pischke. Rex was easy going and full of life and will be remembered as a dedicated family man. In his younger years, he enjoyed playing softball/baseball and loved animals with birds being a favorite. Rex found the positive in everything and was always willing to try new things, especially food. After retirement, he enjoyed every minute with his family and friends and loved to talk about everything and anything. He enjoyed life to the fullest. Rex had a heart of gold, was an easy going gentle soul, and would give you the shirt of his back if you asked. He was a teacher of life and an everyday superman who had a smile that you could never forget and was loved by everyone who met him.

He is survived by his wife Linda; children Michael (Heather Morris) Sooley, Shannon (Jeffery) LaPuma, Sara (Mike) Lewis, and Amanda (Billy) Anderson; grandchildren Mason Sooley, Hadley Sooley, Aaron Morgan USMC, Jacob LaPuma, Chase Lewis, Ava Lewis, Megara Anderson, and Clio Anderson; parents Norb and Betty Pischke; siblings Holly (Nick) Azzone, Mark (Melonie) Pischke, and Jon (Julie) Pischke; and by many nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

He was preceded in death by his brother Neal Pischke.

“ Very sad - I just heard about Rex, but we called him "Tex". Great guy, great friend, great softball player. He could hit a 16" softball further than anyone I've ever seen. I wish I could have paid my respects with friends and family. RIP Tex.
