“ I knew Robert when he was around 13. I always liked him. I regret and know that I should have spent more time with him. Of course, you don't realize these things when you are young yourself. I suppose I take comfort and those of you who loved Robert and have other regrets and grief should take comfort in this fact: Robert lived his life well, and he was always smiling always positive and loved his family and he felt loved by being supported and adopted and certainly from his perspective he led a great life and was loved. Of course he missed his dad and everyone but also as he grew he gained new family and I remember it in his face that he was happy. So be happy when you think of Robert Rosa and others that you have loved. God bless.

“ Our whole family loved Robert. We babysat him daily when he was in grade school, and he also came to visit us in Waukegan a couple of times when he was grown. After we did not hear from him for a while, we started to try to find him. We were shocked to come across his passing and always wondered what happened. He was a very kind loving person and we will never forget him. May you rest in peace Robert. You are missed.....
