“ On behalf of Fr. Scott Donahue and Mercy Home for Boys & Girls, we would like to extend our heartfelt condolences and prayers to the family and friends of Roland Rauch.

May the angels lead him into paradise; may the martyrs come to welcome him and take him to the holy city, the new and eternal Jerusalem.

“ To the entire Rauch family, I'm so sorry for your loss. I'll always think of Papa Rauch fondly - we had such fun times at bocce, picnics and camping. His humor and warmth made him a joy to be around. I'll always remember pitching softball at one of Cindy's picnics when he hit a line drive right at my head! Luckily I caught it, but I'll never forget his look of concern when he thought it might hit me, followed by his mock indignation that I'd stolen his hit. We had a good laugh over that incident.

He was a wonderful man and I'll miss him.
