

Van Michael Lindstrom

April 11, 2002 - October 31, 2021

Van Michael Lindstrom, 19 years old of Lake Villa, passed away on Sunday October 31, 2021. He was born in Highland Park on April 11, 2002 to Michael and Denise Lindstrom. Van could be a fierce and loyal friend. He held a beautiful confidence that was oversized at times. He put merriment into the world. He especially loved dogs, and they loved him back.

Van is survived by his parents Mike and Denise; brothers Drew and Leo; grandparents the late Dennis (Karen) Prince, Sheila Woods, Walter and Peggy Lindstrom; uncles Scott (Tammy) Shear, Timothy (Ellie) Prince, Dennis Prince Jr. and Christopher (Toni) Lindstrom. He is also survived by cousins, friends and family that will miss him dearly.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

“ Van was a student of mine not long ago. All in all he was a good kid. He would sleep all day and then randomly get up and tell us he was going awol. He would then proceed to casually walk until he was out of eyesight. I enjoyed having him in class. My heart breaks for his family. Far to young to be gone. R.I.P. Van "on the run"
