

Wanda Sue Campbell

January 24, 1942 - December 6, 2022

Wanda Sue Campbell, 80, of Lindenhurst, IL passed away peacefully on December 6, 2022, at Lake Forest Hospital. Born on January 24, 1942 in Indianapolis, IN, she is predeceased by her parents, Ralph and Ruth Stevens of Charlottesville, IN, her brother, Rex Stevens of Angola, IN, and her husband of 45 years, Clinton "Art" Campbell of Lindenhurst, IL.

Wanda was a longtime resident of Lindenhurst. When her children were young, she stayed at home to care for them and often volunteered at their schools. She also provided daycare to several other children. Once her youngest child went to school, Wanda decided to become a school secretary. After working at BJ Hooper School in Lindenhurst for several years, she moved to Emmons School in Antioch. After many years at Emmons, Wanda enjoyed life as a retiree. She enjoyed traveling to Hawaii and Alaska, spending lots of time with her granddaughters, sewing, and reading mysteries. She also loved her reality television shows, such as Survivor and Dr. Pol, sports programs, and Hallmark Christmas movies.

Survivors include her children, Kristina of Gurnee, Jason of Wauconda, and Eric (Lydia) of Round Lake Beach; three granddaughters, Tess, Makayla, and Makenna; and her dog Cody.

The memorial visitation will be from 4-8 PM on December 19th, at Ringa

Funeral Home, 122 S. Milwaukee Ave (Route 83), Lake Villa. Service with Pastor Katie Voigt of United Methodist Church of Antioch will be at 7:00 PM.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a memorial contribution to a local pet rescue or to the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation.
