“ i have many great memorys of Bill. He was the hardest working man I've ever known. This he instilled in me. He busted his ass to support his children and sick wife. He always spoke his mind. Smart man, good teacher, good father. I know all this because he was my father. I just wish I was around to say goodbye. This I must live with now. Sorry dad, I love you. God bless you. Love Aaron

“ Bill was a kind soul that I had the pleasure of knowing for many years through his son Dwight. We all shared a passion for auto racing and cars and spent many an enjoyable weekend taking in squealing tires, high speed passes and the roar of the crowds. The Indy 500 held a special place in our hearts and was a place of many memories with Bill.

I will miss his humor and unique style that made him one of a kind. He will definitely be missed.
