

William 'Bill' Werchek

November 3, 1979 - March 14, 2022

William 'Bill' J Werchek, was born on Nov. 3, 1979, in Lake Forest, IL and unexpectedly passed on March 14, 2022. Bill graduated from Antioch Community High School and was a lifelong resident of the Antioch community.

Bill was the guy that would do anything for his family and friends. When Bill walked in a room, everyone would know he was there, with his jokes and remarks that made everyone laugh. He always enjoyed his weekends doing motocross and dirt biking. Bill's life revolved around his son James and he always enjoyed spending time with all of his nieces and nephews. They all called Bill their favorite uncle.

Bill was preceded in death by his father Steven K. Werchek Sr.

Bill is survived by his grandmother Christine Patterson; his loving mother Kathy Werchek; sons James Dylan Werchek and Chaz; brothers Ronald (Melissa) Werchek, his twin brother Daniel (Nikki) Werchek, Steven (Taralynn) Werchek Jr., John Werchek, Brian Werchek and sisters Rosalind Werchek and Takiah Werchek. He is also survived by several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Bill will truly be missed by all, including his longtime companion Anne Hlavac. His life was cut too short.

Visitation will be Friday March 18, 2022 from 4:00 until time of service at 7:30 at Ringa Funeral Home 122 S. Milwaukee Ave. Lake Villa, IL 60046.
Cremation will take place privately after the service.

“ Bill was such a sweet wonderful guy who always put everyone before himself. There wasn't anything he wouldn't do for family or friends. He was a great friend to my children, we always had lots of laughs when he came around, he just had a way of putting a smile on your face, Bill will be truly missed by all that loved him. Rest in peace.

“ I remember the Werchek family from Camp Crayon. Unfortunately I cannot remember how many Werchek's participated in the program. However, I remember his Mom and some of the foster children too.

God bless his Mother and entire family.
